Chapter 1 by Payton Forbes

"Hey, guys look it's Lucas the Looser!" Everyone who heard starts to laugh and follow behind Erik as he slowly walked towards Lucas.

"Leave me alone Erik." Lucas said starting to walk faster to get away.

"Where you going chump, I just want to have a friendly conversation." Erik sarcastically said picking up his pace.

"Sorry but I can't talk right now I have to..." Lucas ran into a kid making him stop dead in his tracks. Then he realized that a horde of people was starting to create a circle around Erik and Lucas.

"Are you sure you don't want to chat Looser? I have something I've been wanting to say all day!" Erik shoves Lucas knocking him to the ground sending papers flying into the sky scattering around the school yard.

"Erik, please g-go a-away." Lucas stammered scooting backward away from him.

"Or what? Are You gonna run? Cause I'm pretty sure you're surrounded." People started to snicker and move in closer.

"I... I'm.."

"What? Gonna cry? Well go ahead Cry wimp Cry!" Erik closed in and started to gently kick him as if to say run, I dare you.
